Student Learning Outcomes

- Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of major writers, key texts, and documents of British literature from Beowulf to the late 18th century.
- Students will be able to identify major literary genres and explain the development of literary forms during these periods.
- Students will demonstrate, in writing, application of relevant critical and theoretical frameworks to evaluate the literature.

Description

A survey of literature spanning the earliest Old English texts, Middle English period, Early Modern period, through Neoclassicism, including early writers of the British colonies. Texts discussed and analyzed within historical, sociocultural, philosophical, political, legal, and aesthetic contexts, integrating theories of race and ethnicity, gender and sexuality, socioeconomic class and labor, slavery, colonialism and immigration, religion/spirituality, and ability.

Course Objectives

Representative Text(s) and Other Materials
Robinson, Bonnie J. British Literature I: Middle Ages to the Eighteenth Century and Neoclassicism (available as OER). 2018.
Equiano, Olaudah. The Interesting Narrative of the Life of Olaudah Equiano, Or Gustavus Vassa, the African. 1789.
Cuogoano, Quobna Ottobah. Thoughts and Sentiments on the Evil and Wicked Traffic of the Slavery and Commerce of the Human Species. 1787.

As this course spans roughly the years AD 700-1789, many of the texts are contemporaneous with this time period (therefore older than five years); anthologies and theoretical texts are updated.
