Student Learning Outcomes

- Synthesize critical thinking, imaginative, cooperative and empathetic abilities as whole persons in order to contextualize knowledge and make meaning.
- Analyze two cinematic representations of a myth or mythic theme from either different time periods (i.e. 60's and 90's) or two different cultures.
- Discuss the difference and similarities of the impact of Creation Myths in three different cultures.

Description

An in-depth study of myths and legends, including, but not limited to, those from ancient Mesopotamia, classical Greece and Rome, Asia, India, Africa, Europe, and the indigenous Americas, and their adaptation in literature, art and film. The course traces both the function and influence of myths from diverse cultural contexts on our understanding of the past and our experience of modern/popular culture.

Course Objectives

The student will be able to:

- identify some major theories of myth interpretation.
- analyze how myths function as building blocks of culture.
- interpret mythic metaphors, symbols, and analogies.
- analyze how myths relate to rituals and morality.
- compare and contrast characters, events, symbols, and motifs in various myths and their adaptations.
- recognize mythological themes in modern culture, including literature, television and film.
- analyze how adaptations of myth seek to reflect, classify and define the cultural and social experiences of an age.
- identify how adaptations of mythology inspire and inform the various movie genres (action adventure, drama, romantic comedy, science fiction and fantasy).
