Student Learning Outcomes

- The tutors will be able to assess the deficiencies as well as to recognize the academic needs of their tutees.
- The tutors will be able to work in conjunction with their tutees to develop and action plan and a calendar of tutoring activities, so that the students can meet their course objectives.

Description

Course for students who are being trained to offer Spanish language tutorial services.

Course Objectives

The student will be able to:
A. master criteria for choosing tutoring techniques that best suit the tutee's learning needs in elementary Spanish courses.
B. practice monitoring and correction skills, including writing, oral, and aural communication.
C. demonstrate effective reporting techniques.
D. develop sensitivity to the tutee's diverse learning styles and abilities, language and/or course levels and individual learning needs.

Course Content

A. Master criteria for choosing tutoring techniques that best suit the tutee's learning needs
1. Assessment of the tutee's language and/or course level
2. Evaluation of the tutee's deficiencies in Spanish grammar, writing, pronunciation and aural/oral communication
3. Development of an action plan and goals for effective tutorial in every individual case
B. Practice monitoring and correction skills, in writing (by proofreading written material produced by the tutee), oral, and aural communication (evaluation of oral presentations prepared by the tutee)
1. How to check and correct errors according to the tutee's language level
2. Discuss errors and deficiencies and praise improvements
3. Provide peer support and review with reading and writing materials
C. Demonstrate effective reporting techniques
1. Drawing reasonable inferences about tutee's needs and communicating them in a positive way
2. Predicting outcomes based on material discussed
3. Promote in the tutee active problem/solution analysis of the material being explained/studied during a tutoring session
D. Develop sensitivity to the tutee's diverse learning styles and abilities, language levels and individual needs
1. Promote an environment of peer cooperation and sharing of knowledge
2. Promote self-reflective tutoring that allows the tutor to constantly modify his tutoring strategies according to tutee's needs
