

SPAN 5: INTERMEDIATE SPANISH II

Foothill College Course Outline of Record

Heading	Value
Effective Term:	Summer 2022
Units:	5
Hours:	5 lecture per week (60 total per quarter)
Prerequisite:	SPAN 4 or equivalent.
Degree & Credit Status:	Degree-Applicable Credit Course
Foothill GE:	Area I: Humanities
Transferable:	CSU/UC
Grade Type:	Letter Grade (Request for Pass/No Pass)
Repeatability:	Not Repeatable

Student Learning Outcomes

- Write two-page compositions with the appropriate forms of all verb tenses with a greater level of grammatical accuracy.
- Respond in writing to a wide range of genres of variable length and difficulty level.

Description

Further expansion of the reading and discussion of texts dealing with the literature, arts, geography, history and culture of the Spanish-speaking world. Review and further development of the grammatical structures of first-year Spanish with emphasis on building communicative competence and expanding concrete vocabulary about new topics, and idiomatic usage. Emphasis on past tenses and past subjunctive. Writing and reading assignments based upon topics discussed in class.

Course Objectives

The student will be able to:

- demonstrate communicative skills in Spanish at the intermediate level in reading, writing, listening and speaking.
- communicate clearly in compositions, although with a certain amount of inaccuracy.
- discuss, analyze and appraise, orally and in writing, selected readings dealing with the Hispanic world past and present: geography, history, socio-cultural features, and the arts.
- compare aspects of the diversity of cultures throughout the Spanish-speaking world, from reading selections and thorough discussions and analogies, orally and in writing.
- analyze historic developments in the Spanish-speaking world.
- analyze issues of cultural significance, for example, music, poetry.

Course Content

- Demonstrate the following communicative skills in Spanish at the intermediate level in reading, writing, listening and speaking:
 - Summaries of personal experience
 - Hypothesis and predictions
 - Detailed descriptions of persons, places, and objects

- Historical events
 - Summaries, narrations, descriptions of contents of newspaper and magazine articles, and films shown in class
 - Formulation of ideas, reactions, feelings
 - Compare and contrast cultures in the Hispanic world with emphasis on Central America
- Communicate clearly in compositions utilizing these grammatical structures:
 - The past participle
 - Relative pronouns
 - Uses of indicative and subjunctive mood
 - Conditional tense: regular and irregular verbs
 - Imperfect subjunctive: forms and si- clauses
 - Future: regular and irregular verbs
 - Discuss, analyze and appraise, orally and in writing, selected readings dealing with the Hispanic world past and present: geography, history, socio-cultural features, literature, and the arts
 - Recognize and appreciate the similarities and differences of the cultural and geographical areas of the Spanish-speaking world, with emphasis on Central America, Cuba, República Dominicana, Colombia and Venezuela
 - Recognize language as an essential aspect of cultural expression, with attention to the cultural and historical origins of the Spanish language, and its evolution and transformations in response to interaction with other languages in Spain and in the Americas, with emphasis on Central America and Indigenous groups in Central America
 - Examine the origin, development and diffusion of Spanish in the Americas
 - Discuss and audio and video material with emphasis on Central America
 - Compare aspects of the diversity of cultures throughout the Spanish-speaking world, from reading selections and thorough discussions and analogies, orally and in writing
 - Study and compare the historical ties of Hispanic countries to the United States, with attention to issues of economy and migration as they relate to language development and cultural identity, with emphasis on Central America, Cuba, República Dominicana, Colombia and Venezuela
 - Discuss current events related to Central America, Cuba, República Dominicana, Colombia and Venezuela
 - Study and compare the cultures, ethnicities and societies of Spanish-speaking world areas with emphasis on Central America, Cuba, República Dominicana, Colombia and Venezuela
 - Analyze historic developments in the Spanish-speaking world
 - Analyze issues of historical and cultural significance, for example, gender roles and stereotypes, revolutions, political and social behavior
 - Discuss and analyze readings by writers with different points of view and interpret the artistic, intellectual and social significance of these contributions
 - Discuss and analyze readings in which the main characters are from different social and political classes, and lifestyles

Lab Content

Not applicable.

Special Facilities and/or Equipment

1. Smart classroom.
2. When taught via Foothill Global Access: ongoing access to computer with relevant computer applications.

Method(s) of Evaluation

Methods of Evaluation may include but are not limited to the following:

Frequent compositions
Periodic examinations and quizzes
Oral participation
Daily preparation
Laboratory manual assignments
Final examination

Method(s) of Instruction

Methods of Instruction may include but are not limited to the following:

Lecture
Discussion
Cooperative learning exercises
Oral presentations
Writing activities to develop writing fluency and to allow the professor to track student progress
Reading comprehension activities to review the cultural content of chapters in the main text
Pre-listening activities to create context and activate background knowledge will include listening and reading passages and a list of new vocabulary
Listening comprehension of conversations in everyday spoken Spanish and advertisements will follow the pre-listening activities
Pronunciation exercises to help students develop good pronunciation, rhythm and intonation
Dictation exercises to practice spelling rules
Reading practice to develop student reading skills in prediction, vocabulary and comprehension
Viewing and answering questions about video segments, for student self-assessment

Representative Text(s) and Other Materials

Pérez Gironés, Ana María. Más. 2018.

Sawyer, Michael. Contextos. 2017.

Bretz, Mary Lee. Avance. 2013.

Samaniego, Fabián. Mundo 21. 2011.

Although some texts are older than the suggested "5 years or newer" standard, they remain seminal in this area of study.

Types and/or Examples of Required Reading, Writing, and Outside of Class Assignments

- a. Read and analyze literature of at least one book-length work.
- b. Write responses to readings.

- c. Write assignments related to the readings which include summary, narration and description, exposition and analysis, evaluation and hypothesis, for approximately 3000 words.

Discipline(s)

Foreign Languages